Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 2, 2007

You have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God.

— Hebrews 12:22a

HUMILITY

Have you ever been in a group of people—maybe on a tour, at a social gathering, or at church—and discovered that you have just been talking with a well-known author, corporate CEO, great scholar, or politician? Your first thought is the hope that you didn't say anything to embarrass yourself; but your second thought is how much they seemed like such "regular" folks. What is it that makes people seem so "regular"? Today's readings give us a clue when they stress the importance of humility.

It is so hard for us not to tell the first person who will listen how busy we are, how hard we work, how much money we donate, and how important our job titles are. We think these accolades make a difference to people, and if we don't tell them, how will they ever know? But if our actions demonstrate our values, people will recognize our worth on their own. The words of Jesus show us how much better it is to let someone else recognize our worth than to be embarrassed because someone did not.

HUMILDAD

¿Has estado alguna vez con un grupo de personas – quizás en un crucero, en una reunión social, o en la iglesia– y descubres que has estado hablando con un autor muy conocido, un alto ejecutivo de una empresa poderosa, un gran intelectual o una figura política? Tu primer pensamiento es que ojalá no hayas dicho nada embarazoso, pero el segundo es tu asombro al notar que se comporten como una persona "normal". ¿Qué es lo que hace a una persona "normal"? Las lecturas de hoy nos dan una pista cuando ponen de relieve la importancia de la humildad.

Es tan difícil no decirle a la primera persona que nos escuche lo ocupados que estamos, lo mucho que trabajamos, cuánto dinero donamos y cuán importantes son nuestros títulos en el trabajo. Pensamos que estas distinciones tienen influencia en las personas, y si no se lo decimos, ¿cómo van a saberlo? Pero si nuestras acciones demuestran nuestros valores, la gente reconocerá lo que valemos, por sí solas. Las palabras de Jesús nos muestran que es mucho mejor dejar que los demás reconozcan nuestros méritos que apenarnos porque alguien no los reconoce.

SERVANT GREETING IN THE LORD

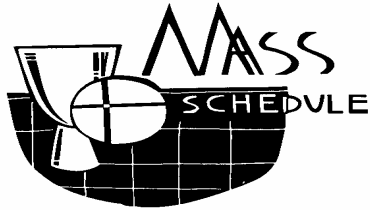

As we gather this Labor Day weekend to rest from our physical labors, we can recharge our spiritual batteries to become more humble servants of God's people. As God's chosen ones, are we here on Earth to be exalted or are we God's humble servants helping those less fortunate than we are?? Let us be reminded that we need to show others that we have compassion, understanding, love, care and forgiveness.

Let us contribute to the needs of our Notre Dame Faith Community by preparing and giving of our time, talent, and treasure to Notre Dame Festival on September 15 & 16, 2007. Please remember it is more blessed to give than to receive!

Be not afraid to take the first step to help our festival! May God continue to bless you on your spiritual journey.

Yours In Christ,

Fr. Mike Peinemann

Morality

When we think morality, the question is usually "What ought I to do?"

Surprise!! Wrong question. In spiritual matters, you can not know what you ought to do until you acknowledge what has been done for you. When we acknowledge what Jesus has done for us, the question becomes: what ought my response be?

The outline for the discussion on Morality is available in the Narthex and on the church web site: ndparishkerrville.org

For more information call Carol Aceti at 257-1432

ATTENTION: All Ministers

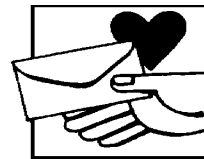

Just as Jesus went away to pray and reflect on his mission, we, too, are called to set aside time to reflect on the ministries in which we serve. There are three different times set aside in September for all ministers – old and new – to come together. All who minister need to set aside ONE of these on your calendar: Saturday, September 8 – 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. OR Sunday, September 9 - 2:00 to 3:30 p.m. OR Sunday, September 23 – 2:00 to 3:30 p.m in the Social Center. Please make this a priority.

POWER OF PRAYER

A friendly reminder
Our ACTS Women will be on retreat Thursday thru Friday, Sept 20-23, 2007. They need our prayers all weekend. Look for their prayer poster in the church narthex, everyone welcome to sign up.

The Collection
by Paul Turner

The weekly collection humbly expresses the community's faith. The silent routine accompanies the spirit of selflessness that unites believers. Whether your gift is large or small, the collection expresses what we have in common – a desire to share.

In the Mass, the collection occurs at the beginning of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Its placement is significant. It is not an admission fee to get into the building. It is part of the heart of the Mass. Every Mass celebrates the sacrifice of Christ on the cross. That sacrifice unfolds before our eyes as the gifts we bring, the bread and wine, are transformed into the Body and Blood of Christ and offered to God.

This sacrificial action begins when we carry bread and wine to the altar during the preparation of the gifts. With them we bring our gifts for the poor. This procession moves through the community because these gifts come from us and represent us. They represent our offering to God and our communion with God. Just as the Body and Blood of Christ bring heavenly nourishment to our community, so the collection brings material aid.

That material aid is no small matter. Your church depends on your gift. Parishes receive money like beggars, not like clerks. People give not to receive a product; they give to make a gift.

The charity which underlies the collection results from faith. We believe that what we have comes from God and we know it was given for the enjoyment of all. A habit of giving comes from a heart that has learned the satisfactions of generosity. A habit of giving offers us peace that we are doing our part to make the world a better, more generous place.

The Scriptures recommend a tithe – giving 10 percent of what we earn to charities. By giving from what we receive, we share God's love with the world.

ABOUT LITURGY...

The very meaning of the word, Liturgy, derives from two Greek words meaning “the work (or service) of the people.” In ancient Greece “liturgists” were those who performed public works on behalf of society. In the context of Christian worship, the word suggests that worship cannot be removed from doing – serving others, especially those in need...The real work of the liturgy actually begins at the dismissal, when we are sent off to do what we have celebrated – to serve others, to spend our lives for the good of others...The greatest worship we can give to God is to reach out with God's generosity toward those around us in need. Worship does not only happen within church buildings; it characterizes our relationship to God and to each other – a relationship of humility and service. (excerpt from Living Liturgy, 2007)

XLT(EXALT)

The next XLT will be September 9, 2007 at 5pm in the church. There will be adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Come praise and worship God with music from the Life Teen band. All parishioners are invited to attend this service. Please come and check out this new ministry.

Just as a mother or father dedicates a disproportionate amount of time and energy to a child who is sick, without for that reason loving their other children any less, Christians are called to focus their efforts preferentially toward the most needy and defenseless among us.
