

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 8, 2006

“Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.”
Mark 10:14

TOWARD HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS

From the beginning of creation, God intended for people to live together in relationship with one another. Much of scripture shows us how to do this as it illustrates and clarifies God’s plans. The readings this weekend guide us in the value and care of our relationships. Specifically, the Gospel focuses on the circumstances of failed relationships. Unlike the Pharisees, we would do well not to focus on the laws that pertain to failed relationships, but concentrate instead on what God really intended for us. Healthy bonds require a lot of our time and energy. They certainly require trust and honesty. Jesus demonstrated a deep commitment to his friends and to us. As our brother, he gave his very life for us. Children work hard at friendships. They trust, forgive, and love without conditions. The final words of today’s Gospel invite us to welcome Jesus and the people of our relationships with the fresh enthusiasm of a child.

CAMINO A RELACIONES SALUDABLES

Desde comienzos de la creación, Dios tenía planeado que los seres humanos vivieran unidos llevándose bien unos con otros. Gran parte de la Sagrada Escritura nos muestra cómo hacerlo, a la vez que explica y clarifica el plan de Dios. Las lecturas este fin de semana ofrecen una guía para valorar y cuidar de nuestras relaciones humanas. Específicamente, el Evangelio se enfoca en las circunstancias de una relación que ha fallado. A diferencia de los fariseos, nos conviene no tanto enfatizar las leyes que se aplican a relaciones que fallan, sino más bien, dar prioridad a lo que en realidad Dios deseaba para nosotros. Los vínculos saludables requieren de nosotros mucho tiempo y dedicación. Ciertamente exigen confianza y honestidad. Jesús demostró un profundo compromiso con sus amigos y para con nosotros. Como un hermano, entregó hasta su vida por nosotros. Los niños se ocupan mucho de sus amistades. Ellos confían, perdonan, aman sin condiciones. Las palabras finales del Evangelio de hoy nos invitan a recibir a Jesús y a aquellos con quienes nos relacionamos, con el entusiasmo y la frescura de un niño.

FROM THE PASTOR

Greetings in the Lord!

As our Notre Dame Faith Community continues to follow God’s word and example of faithfulness to his Father so we too go forth to be faithful to him. On Thursday, October 12, 2006, Notre Dame will have a Healing Mass at 6:00 pm. This Mass is for all of our people who desire God’s healing hand in whatever ails them. The anointing of the sick will be administered by two priests. All of our parishioners and friends are invited to share in God’s graces.

Thank you for your support of the many ministries to our Notre Dame Faith Community. Your support of the Notre Dame Cash Cards, volunteering to teach religious education, RCIA, and other classes is an important ministry to one another. May God continue to bless you as you discern God’s call.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Mike

(Bilingual) Healing Mass

Each of us suffers in different ways: physically, spiritually, emotionally. We know that we can turn to God for hope, comfort, and healing. There will be a bilingual healing Mass this Thursday at 6 p.m. Fr. Mike Peinemann and Msgr. Mike Boulette will concelebrate, and anoint with the oil of healing after the homily.

STEWARDSHIP – A Way of Life

“Store up for yourselves treasures in heaven... for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” (Matthew 6:20-21)

Everything we have is given to us by God... something to ponder this week: Stewardship of life, stewardship of time, stewardship of health, stewardship of talents, stewardship of relationships, stewardship of the Gospel, stewardship of property. We can ask ourselves: “what am I doing (or not doing) in each of these areas?”
“From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required...” (Luke 12:48)
