

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 28, 2007

Faith, hope, and love remain, these three; but the greatest is love.

1 Corinthians 13:13

THE GREAT HYMN TO LOVE

It is doubtful that Saint Paul, when he sat down to write what we now know as the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians, knew that he was penning what was to become one of the keystones of Christian ethics. In this brief passage, he set down ideals about love that have held fast through the centuries. Sometimes we may think that because these are ideals to which we aspire, we are excused from them in our daily living.

But what Paul was writing was a letter to his friends, providing them with some sound advice about what it meant—and still means—to live in love, day by day, as a follower of Christ. We find in his words to his friends a broadening of the great commands of Jesus to love God and neighbor. Today we hear what this love must look like in our own actions, and how it ought to guide our relationships with others.

EL GRAN HIMNO AL AMOR

Cabe dudar que, cuando San Pablo se sentó a escribir lo que ahora conocemos como el capítulo trece de la primera carta a los corintios, supiera que lo que estaba escribiendo se convertiría en una clave principal de la ética cristiana. En este breve pasaje, ha consignado ideales sobre el amor que se han mantenido firmes en el transcurso de los siglos. A veces pensamos que porque estos son sólo ideales a los que uno aspira, estamos libres de no practicarlos en nuestra vida diaria.

Lo que Pablo estaba escribiendo era una carta a sus amigos, dándoles buenos consejos sobre lo que significaba —y todavía significa— vivir en el amor, día a día, en seguimiento de Cristo. Encontramos en las palabras a sus amigos una ampliación del gran mandamiento de Jesús de amar a Dios y al prójimo. Hoy en día escuchamos cómo este amor debe expresarse en nuestras acciones, y cómo debe regir nuestras relaciones con los demás.

Greetings in the Lord,

Coming together as disciples of the Lord let us celebrate our calling. Each of us is called to be humble in God's eyes, along with becoming holy. We strive also to be patient and gentle with one another and continue our work toward inner peace by not letting other people's comments about us bother us. Continue to share God's blessings with those around us especially this week as we celebrate Catholic Schools Week with our Notre Dame Catholic School and Our Lady of the Hills High School. I would like to thank you for your generosity in helping the priests, sisters, and brothers in our foreign missions with our second collection this weekend.

Peace starts with a smile!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Michael Peinemann

SPOTLIGHT ON STEWARDSHIP... "Proclaimers of the Word"

This week our spotlight is on those who serve in the ministries of lector, children's Liturgy of the Word, and musician. They prepare their service to us by reading, praying, and meditating on the Word of God and rehearsing to proclaim God's message. The manner in which they read to the assembly, break open the Word for the children, and sing the texts of the music challenges us to live our lives on the model of our Savior, Jesus Christ. We praise and thank you, Lord, for those who have listened to their baptismal call, and live their lives in stewardship in these ways.

PALMS

Don't forget to bring your old palm branches by the Pastoral Center. We will burn them before the 5:00 pm Mass on February 10 for use on Ash Wednesday. (We need LOTS more, please!)

Jesus of history, Christ of Faith.

The divine Son of God walked the earth in the person of Jesus. He was raised from the dead by God and he truly was and is forever Lord and Savior. Jesus of history and Christ of faith are one and the same person, understood and experienced in two different ways. Is this a practical truth we can live daily?

The outline for the discussion on Faith is available in the Narthex.

Notre Dame School Cash Cards

Cash Cards are "shopping cart fundraising".

The reason for the effectiveness of Cash Cards is simple: families generate revenue through purchases they would make anyway. Groceries, clothing, toys, gifts, even gasoline can be purchased with a Cash Card. An organization of 150 families easily spends between one and two million dollars per year on food, clothing and other essentials. If these families use Cash Cards for these purchases, they can raise as much as $40,000 to $80,000 per year for their organization --without spending an additional penny.

Thank You for Your faithful Support!

The Cash Cards are available at:

Notre Dame Catholic School

Catholic Schools Week 2007

January 28, 2007 thru February 2, 2007

Each year we take this week to look at our schools' ties to our parish, community and country, as well as their bonds with our students, parents, faculty, and staff. This year's Catholic Schools Week theme is "Catholic Schools: The Good News in Education." Our logo features an open book, symbolizing both the Bible and knowledge. The theme is a particularly fitting message for our times, underscoring the Christ-centered foundation and academic excellence of Catholic schools.

Notre Dame Catholic School would not be possible without the commitment and support of Notre Dame Parish. Mass is the foundation of parish life. There is no better way to start this special week than by gathering to hear the good news of the Gospel and celebrate the Eucharist.

We will begin our week by honoring our parish and participating at the 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, January 28, 2007. An Open House and Reception will be held in the Social Center from 12:00 – 1:00 p.m. We invite Notre Dame Parishioners, Notre Dame School Alumni, family and friends to join our celebration.

"Education is the best gift anyone can receive. It's a treasure that never loses its value, and it's the richest inheritance parents can leave to their children-even more so if it forms not only the mind, but the spirit and moral character."

Archbishop Jose H. Gomez

Extra! Extra! Read All About It!!

Kerrville, Texas - Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion asked to change when they approach the altar. Effective Saturday, January 27th at the 5:00pm mass, sources have confirmed that EMHC's should no longer approach the altar before the priest/celebrant has received Holy Communion. Commenting to reporters this morning, Father Mike Peinemann said: "Oh the Bishops are quite clear on this matter. Now would one of you hand me my 2-iron?"

But seriously folks, everyone knows only God can hit a 2-iron AND we really do need to make this change.

According to the Norms for the Distribution and Reception of Holy Communion Under Both Kinds in the Dioceses of the United States of America as Approved by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops on June 14, 2001:

"If extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion are required by pastoral need, they should not approach the altar before the priest has received Communion."

The Old Way

EMHC's entered the sanctuary during the Sign of Peace.

The New Way

EMHCs enter the sanctuary as the priest/celebrant receives the Blood of Christ. If there are concelebrants – visiting priests or bishops – wait until the last of the concelebrants receives the Blood of Christ before rising from your position and entering the sanctuary. The deacon is not considered a priest, celebrant or concelebrant.

Weekday & School Masses

Yes, this change includes all masses performed in the Parish where EMHCs are utilized.

What To Do

Please sit in the first four rows and on the same side of the church that you will be serving. We now have less time to get into position in the sanctuary so, the closer the better.

Please sit at the end or near the end of a row. You will have to approach the sanctuary at the time when the congregation is kneeling; sitting on or near the end of the row will cut down on the distraction to those worshipping around you.

That's It?

Yes, that's it; nothing else changes. You still bow before ascending the steps to the sanctuary and you still assemble in the sanctuary in the usual assigned positions. The only difference is when you approach the altar.

Questions?

Please contact Stephen Canty at 895-3428. Thank you for your service!
