Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 15, 2007

Christ Jesus . . . is the head of the body, the church.
— Colossians 1:15, 18

GO AND DO LIKEWISE

Miss Collins, the dean of students at Olympic High School, was past the point of scolding Matt, though she liked him very much. “Four detentions in two weeks are too many.”

Still Matt wouldn’t tell. It was only after Miss Collins went on a morning neighborhood patrol that she found out the real reason for Matt’s tardiness. Thump, thump, thump, came the wheelchair down the stairs. It was Matt, steadying Shawnetta as he helped lower her down the stairs and then push her to the corner bus stop.

“She’s a girl in my parish youth group,” Matt explained to Miss Collins.

There are many ways to describe Matt’s actions—a random act of kindness, making a difference one person at a time. Jesus would understand. When the lawyer correctly identified the good Samaritan as the one who had treated the injured man with compassion, Jesus said simply, “Go and do likewise” (Luke 10:37).

ANDA Y HAZ TÚ LO MISMO

La señorita Collins, la decana de los estudiantes de la Escuela Secundaria Olympic, ya estaba cansada de regañar a Matt, a pesar de que le caía muy bien. “Cuatro castigos después de clase en dos semanas es demasiado”.

Sin embargo Matt permanecía en silencio. Sólo después de que la señorita Collins fuera en una ronda matutina por el vecindario descubrió la verdadera razón de las tardanzas de Matt. Pataplún, cayó la silla de ruedas por las escaleras. Era Matt, sujetando a Shawnetta mientras ayudaba a que la bajaran por las escaleras y luego la empujaba hasta la parada de autobús.

“Es una chica de mi grupo de jóvenes de la parroquia” Matt le explicó a la señorita Collins.

Hay muchas formas de describir las acciones de Matt—un acto de bondad al azar, marcar una diferencia en la vida de una persona a la vez. Jesús entendería. Cuando el abogado identificó correctamente al buen samaritano como el que había tratado al hombre herido con compasión, Jesús simplemente dijo: “Anda y haz tú lo mismo” (Lucas 10:37). ©

Notes from the Pastor

GREETINGS IN THE LORD

Let us welcome Jesus into our lives, our homes, and our Parish this summer!

To all women who attended the Spanish Cursillo Retreat this past four days, Notre Dame Community offers you our fondest welcome.

Let us offer a smile, a kind word, our love and understanding to all those we meet this summer. We can give of our time, talent and treasure as we support our local agencies, St. Vincent de Paul, The Raphael Clinic, Hope Ministry and One-by-One Ministries. In the near future each of you will have a chance to share with a national service for the needy through “FOOD FOR THE POOR,” when our Parish will host Father Walter Derylo on July 21-22, 2007.

Our Notre Dame Faith Community was host to 40-50 catechists who attended Level I and Level II Good Shepherd Training this past week. What a special blessing it was to share our parish facilities with visitors from all over Texas!

May God continue to help you welcome Him into your life this summer.

Yours In Christ,

Father Mike Peinemann

BELLA

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Once in a great while, a movie comes along that has the ability to touch hearts in a profound way with its positive message. During the pontificate of Pope John Paul II, the Vatican released a list of such movies as the Vatican Top 45 movies ever made.

The movie "Bella" is a heartwarming film and story of a young unwed mother, and how the pure love of a friend helps her choose life. It presents a message that might appeal to people who have never given much thought to the culture of life. It is not a film about what people shouldn't do, it is a film that time and again shows us what we should do, and inspires us to do it.

School Library Kemper Hall Spirituality and Prayer

Have you noticed how easy it is to pray sometimes and yet at times how hard it is to pray? Using various prayer styles are important to spiritual growth and encourage us in persistent prayer.

What are prayer styles?

The outline for the discussion on Spirituality and Prayer is available in the Narthex and on the church web site: ndparishkerrville.org

For more information call Carol Aceti at 257-1432

You're invited...

*To join us on pilgrimage
To encounter Christ's presence in the poor
To meet those who serve the destitute
To experience the spiritual journey of a lifetime*

In the past, this parish has helped Food For The Poor in its mission of service to the destitute of the Caribbean and Latin America. You can now share in our ministry firsthand by traveling with us on a four-day pilgrimage to a Caribbean country.

You'll encounter Christ's living presence in the poor who are served, and see how collective Christian charity has helped provide food, clean water, basic housing, healthcare, education and more to those in need.

For more information about this life-changing experience, please contact Food For The Poor's Pilgrimage Department at 800-568-8124, or e-mail us at [pilgrimage@foodforthe poor.org](mailto:pilgrimage@foodforthe poor.org).

Don't miss this chance to take the journey of a lifetime!

Pray online with Monks of Perpetual Adoration

The Monks of Perpetual Adoration in Venice, Florida, offer live Web cam footage of the tabernacle in their chapel at: [www.monks of adoration.org/chapel.html](http://www.monks of adoration.org/chapel.html). If your mind tends to wander while praying the Rosary, www.virtualrosary.org has the solution.

FOOD FOR THE POOR

Food for the Poor was founded on the basis of the Gospel. We seek out the poorest of the poor in 16 different countries, aiding some of the most destitute. In each face we see the living Christ, who is hungry, thirsty, a stranger and naked. Our ministry focuses on the greatest needs of the destitute.

On July 21-22, 2007, Father Walter Derylo will visit Notre Dame Parish and will speak on behalf of Food For The Poor. He will share what he has witnessed about Food For The Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

ST. AUGUSTINE on "MySpace"

Starting August 28 – the saint's feast day – St. Augustine will begin a Web log, or blog, about his 'Confessions' on the site...His entire book should be blogged over the course of the next school year...(it) can be viewed at www.myspace.com/saintaugustineofhippo

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

The Kerrville Conference of St. Vincent de Paul wishes to again thank the Notre Dame Community for their tremendous support. This support is both financial and spiritual.

The needs of our community have increased greatly in the last six months. These needs have put a strain on our food supplier, in that we are having a difficult time getting certain items. Our main food supplier is the Food Bank of San Antonio. We have had shortages of several food items including dry pinto beans, canned pinto beans, pork & beans, etc. and various pasta's (spaghetti etc.).

Another thing, our electric dishwasher is worn out, and a new one is badly needed.

If anyone could help in these areas, all contributions would be gratefully accepted.
